Letter of Support for Mr. Tony Loughhead - Instinctive Driving

Workskil Australia Incorporated (Workskil Australia) is a community based not-for-profit organisation that aims to increase the sustainable social and economic self-reliance of individuals and communities experiencing disadvantage. We do this through the provision of a range of employment, community, youth, health and training programs in South Australia and Victoria.

I am the Regional Operations Manager for Workskil Australia in the Southern Adelaide region.

I would like to acknowledge the work Tony has undertaken for Workskil Australia in the provision of driving instruction services, particularly with our more complex clients who have had some significant behavioural and learning barriers.

Tony has built a great rapport with those clients who would otherwise have struggled to engage in any kind of learning. Tony often goes above and beyond for Workskil Australia's clients, and not only assisted with gaining their licence but also offering support in other areas.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you require any further information.

Yours sincerely,

Marcy Gallas
